Important Info. Regarding Student Lunch Accounts—

Parents, it is important that lunch accounts remain current. You can either pay in the morning before school starts or after lunch between the hours of 1:00-2:30 or on-line. Thanks for keeping your child's account current!

CULTURAL CORNER

Among New Year celebrations take place every year in Hmong communities in Southeast Asia and the United States. One of the largest celebrations takes place in Fresno. The Hmong New Year usually starts on the 30th of December and last until January 3. This is usually when the harvest season ends and all the work is finished. During Hmong New Year celebrations the people welcome the New Year and celebrate the hard work done in the last year. Every household celebrates the New Year at home. It is very important for all the family to be at home. People of all races are invited to attend.

THE BROWN GIRLS

Pajama Day is almost here! Get those warm, cozy, fuzzy PJ's out next Thursday because it's our annual PJ day. Of course, they need to be in dress code. Don't forget the robe too. It's still very chilly outside!
